From the Course

Welcome spring, we are so glad you are here! Hello, I hope you and your family are doing well and enjoying the change of weather. We are finally having warm mornings and warmer days. We have had nice spring showers and of course the spring winds along with them. Also the pollen has come out in full force, and if you have a dark vehicle, you will see it all day every day on your car. Washing your car is pretty much a waste of time for now, and if you accidentally leave your car window open all weekend like I did, good luck!

On to the course, the greens have come out of aerification nicely and are shaping up well for spring golf. Unfortunately, it did take a little longer than we would have liked to get them where they need to be as far as green speed and smoothness. The main reason recovery was slow this season was due to the deep tine aerification we did. This is an aggressive aerification and goes down into the soil profile 10–12 inches. This fractures the soil profile and creates channels for water, oxygen, and eventually roots to travel down. This is critical to send deep roots to help with summer survival.

We also used a coarse particle size sand to help dilute organic material and help with drainage and air flow. Believe it or not, we used close to 80 tons of sand to fill and smooth the greens. It has been said to me by a mentor that "You have to break eggs to make cake." Sometimes we have to cause disruption for the improvement and future of our putting surfaces. Inconveniencing members and guests is not our goal, but sometimes it happens. We appreciate your patience and continued business while we recovered from these processes. I can assure you that these practices are only for the betterment of the greens and the club. As we move forward toward The Masters, I hope you are dusting off your clubs and polishing your shoes. This is the time of year when everyone wants to get out and beat the ball around before it gets too hot. I hope you are able to take advantage of the nice days ahead. I appreciate your business and look forward to seeing you at the club. Until next time, I'll see you on the course.
